

American Walnut – Black Walnut

Juglans nigra

Application:	Furniture, table tops, panelling and equipment.
Origin:	Midwest or eastern North America.
About the tree:	Diameter generally 40 to 60 cm. Many trunks are curved. That is why only a few are suitable for long lengths.
Cutting:	Keflico stocks parallel sawn American Walnut.
Quality:	FAS (steamed).
Density:	600 kg/m ³ at 12 % moisture.
Moisture content:	8-10 %
Thickness:	1" - 1¼" - 1½" - 2" - 2½" - 4".
Width:	6" and wider.
Length:	215-400 cm.
Properties:	Heartwood is chocolate-brown, purple tone. Colour-stable type of wood, which take on patina only to some degree. Sapwood clearly distinguishes from heartwood.
Working properties:	Good workability. American Walnut is an outstanding timber for both turning, veneer manufacturing and for sculptural purposes.
Contact us:	Please contact our sales department tel. +45 9813 3544 or info@keflico.com.
Latest update:	09.02.2017

The information on this data sheet is for guidance only. We accept no liability for any inaccuracy or printing errors. This product is not FSC® or PEFC™ certified.